AMENDMENTS

Upon the intention of any changes to the Charter or Summation of Principles, the prime representative will inform the entire membership of the society of the intended changes, and allow for a period of 2 months before those changes are considered lawfully enacted.

The changes presently pending to the Charter or Summation of Principles are as follows:

FOR THE SUMMATION OF PRINCIPLES:

July 3, 2017, the principle of Respect For Others' Laws will be moved to be placed below all of the other principles except for the principle of Inter-sovereign Relations.

These are the present agreements of the society as maintained by the prime representative, Wilson Scheib.
