

Interactive Sovereign Society

RECORD OF MEMBERSHIP

It is hereby recorded that the undersigned is a member of the Interactive Sovereign Society.

CONSTITUTION

We the People of the Interactive Sovereign Society, Each recognized as sovereign in our own right, associate with each Other with the intent of collectively developing and respecting a set of principles of lawful conduct.

The Interactive Sovereign Society is founded upon the principle of the sovereignty of the individual, and is recognised as being the supreme authority in the creation of laws which its members will be responsible for. It is recognised that sovereignty can never be truly realised without love, trust, and mutual respect between Those who assert their sovereignty. The People of the Interactive Sovereign Society are individually responsible, and are thus not bound by laws which are not of their own making.

There shall be a prime representative chosen from among the members of this society who alone can grant or repeal charter. Each member has one transparent, interactive vote in determining the prime representative which She or He can change at any time. This is a law that is immutable and unchangeable even by any act of the prime representative.

The summation of the principles agreed upon by this society in their present state of development shall be maintained by the prime representative and made accessible to all members of the society as much as is reasonably possible.

Membership in this society shall be granted, or terminated, by the prime representative. Termination is based upon reasonable grounds. Acceptance is based upon the understanding that there is an agreement to adhere to the principles of the society.

SIGNATURES

The only obligation of membership in this society is to consult with the Prime Representative whenever You believe it to be reasonable, and find out what the present summation of principles of lawful conduct is, and if You happen to find the summation to be inconsistent with your own beliefs, then You can voice your opinion, run for office, or resign. Your signature below is your agreement to this obligation.
